

Brake Line

Gary Schmidt advises that when purchasing 3/16" brake line always get the tinned type. Apparently the copper coated stuff is made using another process and is not favoured by the Department of Transport